

WYCLIFFE BIBLE SERVICE OPPORTUNITY TRANSLATORS

Finance Staff

"Our members on the field need to know that funds to support them are being received and forwarded to them accurately and on a timely basis.

I feel very privileged to be able to have a part in God's work of Bible translation by using the accounting skills He has given me."

—Chrissy Engeler, Wycliffe Canada's finance department

Are you an accountant or bookkeeper? Are you looking for deeper significance in your work? How about using your God-given skills and experience for an eternal purpose?

Wycliffe's goal is to see that God's Word is translated for people in the language they know and can understand best. Finance staff are critical to this purpose, overseas and at home.

The Need

Wycliffe is concerned about properly handling the funds God entrusts to us. This includes accurately receipting and disbursing financial gifts, accounting for them in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, wisely investing any funds available, and providing financial services to our staff in insurance, banking and personal financial matters.

To accomplish this, we need people skilled in bookkeeping, accounting, insurance and financial management. We need financial staff both overseas and in Canada.

What's Involved

Finances in missions are complicated. Staff need to deal with multiple currencies, many sources of funds, numerous accounts, reporting to agencies from several different governments and other challenges.

Each office maintains its own financial records and is responsible for accurately recording, summarizing and reporting its financial transactions. Most offices use computerized accounting packages, which range from small systems on personal computers to large, sophisticated systems on computer networks.

Wycliffe is committed to the proper stewardship of the funds God entrusts to us. Our Canadian office complies with all requirements of the Canadian Council of Christian Charities (CCCC).

Qualifications & Training

Qualifications for finance staff vary greatly. We need people who have anything from a good logical mind and a love of numbers, to a fully qualified CA—and everything in between. Successful applicants will be required to raise financial support from interested friends, family and churches. Training and resources are provided for this.
